Dear Alumni, Members, and Colleagues,

Please join us for an exceptional 2017 Joint Program in Oak Brook, IL, from November 9-12, 2017. The combined conference, offering a comprehensive review of Hot Topics in Medicine, will offer insight into tough problems in addiction, obesity, sports medicine, internal medicine, and neurology updates, while providing the opportunity to earn 30 hours of AOA Category 1-A CME for Osteopathic Physicians.

The newly renovated Hilton Chicago Oak Brook Hills Conference Center venue is conveniently located near the Midwestern University Campus. One of its most valuable functions, the meeting will provide an ideal setting to connect with friends and colleagues, and introduce the latest concepts and techniques! We invite you to visit the CCOM and IOMS websites to learn more. We look forward to a great meeting and seeing you in Oak Brook.

Program Audience
This education program is designed to provide CME for physicians and physician assistants. Midwestern University Chicago College of Osteopathic Medicine (MWU CCOM) and the Illinois Osteopathic Medical Society (IOMS) are accredited by the American Osteopathic Association to provide osteopathic continuing medical education for physicians. MWU CCOM and IOMS designate this program for a maximum of 30 AOA Category 1-A credits and report CME and specialty credits commensurate with the extent of the physician’s participation in this activity. Application for CME credit has been filed with the American Academy of Family Physicians. Determination of credit is pending.

Meeting Registration
Changes and cancellations must be made by Wednesday, October 18, 2017. Cancellations made after Wednesday, October 18, 2017 will result in a $95 cancellation fee.
